THE PREMIER SEATTLE MONTHLY

APRIL 2007

THE DREAM CELLAR

Most sommeliers, wine writers and oenophiles have an ultimate wine wish list scratched on the back of their shopping list or stuffed in their wallet. Seattle magazine's wine writers shared theirs with us—and then started buying lottery tickets. We can dream, can't we?

Some of these wines are very rare, and are sold out or only available through clubs or mailing lists. Please check with the winery for availability. Costs listed are the most recently available retail or winery prices.
